Minutes:

STEVE GEBEKE, Planning and Development, outlined the various housekeeping items.

Subsequent to the motion, CHAIR TROWBRIDGE invited former COUNCILMAN DAVID STEINMAN to the podium. MARGO WHEELER, Director of Planning and Development, explained that MR. STEINMAN served on the Planning Commission starting in March 2004, prior to taking an interim position as Councilman on the City Council.

CHAIR TROWBRIDGE read a proclamation honoring MR. STEINMAN, who was tenacious in visiting sites, regardless of the ward, and would provide feedback and/or suggestions to the Planning Commission. He went above and beyond the call of duty and residents, especially in Ward 4, will always be indebted to him. During MR. STEINMAN'S tenure with the Planning Commission, nearly 10,000 acres were annexed to the City of Las Vegas. The Planning Commissioners appreciated his many valuable contributions and his volunteer spirit. CHAIR TROWBRIDGE presented the proclamation to MR. STEINMAN and thanked him for being one of the hardest working members on the Planning Commission.

On behalf of the City of Las Vegas, the Planning Commissioners thanked MR. STEINMAN for his commitment and dedication.

MR. STEINMAN was fortunate to have had the opportunity to experience working on the Planning Commission and the City Council. He felt lost at times while serving on the City Council; however, the Planning Commissioner's work is very detailed, which makes it easier in voting on many items that are subsequently heard at City Council. He felt that serving on the Planning Commission and the City Council is the most valuable service to the city. He expressed appreciation for having the opportunity to serve on the Planning Commission, and the members will always be his friends. He also appreciated the guidance given to him and wished everyone well.
